He shall vote on each question put unless he has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the event of such question, except as provided in Rule 26. Loud talking or smoking shall be discontinued upon request of the Speaker.

2. In case all the members of any committee required or entitled to report on any subject referred to them, cannot agree on a report, the majority and minority of such committee may each make a separate report; and any member dissenting in whole or in part from the reasonings or conclusions of both the majority and minority may also present to the House a statement of his reasonings and conclusions, and all reports, if decorous in language and respectful to the House, shall be entered at length on the Journal, unless otherwise ordered by the House.

3. All Standing Committees of the House shall report their action on all bills or matters referred to them within seven days after reference, unless at the request of the Committee, and on good cause shown, further time be granted by the House.

RULE 12.

Substitutes and Amendments.

1. No standing or select committee, or member thereof, shall report any "substitute" or "amendment" for any bill or bills, or resolution, referred to such committee, which substitute or amendment relates to a different subject, or is intended to accomplish a different purpose than that of the original bill or resolution for which it is reported, or which, if adopted or passed would require a title essentially different from the title of the original bill or resolution; and any substitute bill or resolution so reported, shall be rejected whenever the House is advised that the same is in violation of this rule. Section 19, Article 5 of the Constitution of Montana.

2. Any substitute bill or resolution so reported shall be read a first and second time, referred to the Printing Committee, and when reported correctly printed shall be placed on general orders.

3. Section 1 of this rule shall not be suspended.

RULE 13.

When Certain Committees May Report.

The following named Committees shall have leave to report at any time, except when questions are being called or a call of the House is being had, on matters herein stated: The Committee on Rules and Joint Rules and Order of Business; the Committee on Enrollment, on Enrolled Bills; the Committee on Ways and Means, on Bills for raising revenue; the Appropriation Committee, on general appropriation bills; the Committee on Privileges and Elections, on the rights of a member to his seat.

RULE 14.

Privileged Reports.

Reports from the following named committees may be made at any time and shall stand approved without formal action:

Printing Committee.

Engrossing Committee.

Enrolling Committee.

RULE 15.

Conference Reports.

Reports of Committees of Conference may be presented and received on any order of business and shall be in order at any time except when a vote is being taken or a member has the floor, and there shall accompany every such report a detailed statement sufficiently explicit to inform the House what effect such amendment or proposition will have upon the measures to which they relate, which statement shall be entered upon the Journal.

RULE 16.

Absence of Committees.

No committee members shall absent themselves by reason of their appointment during the sitting of the House, without special leave, except committees of conference, engrossment or enrollment.

RULE 17.

Committee Clerks.

The chairman of each committee shall appoint its clerk or clerks, subject to the approval of the majority of the committee, if such clerk or clerks are deemed necessary, who shall be paid at the public expense, the House having first provided for such clerk or clerks on recommendations of the Committee on Employment.

RULE 18.

Committee of the Whole House.

1. The House may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole by a majority of a quorum voting on a motion of a member for that purpose, and may by motion limit debate on any subject to be considered by the committee.

2. In all cases, in forming a Committee of the Whole House, the Speaker shall leave his chair, after appointing a chairman to preside, who shall, in case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries or lobbies, have the power to cause them to be cleared.

3. Whenever the Committee of the Whole House finds itself without a quorum, the committee shall rise and the chairman shall so report, and thereupon there shall be a call of the House and if on such call a quorum shall appear, the committee shall thereupon resume its sitting without further order of the House.

4. All bills and memorials requiring the signature of the Governor shall be considered in the Committee of the Whole before being taken up and considered by the House, and a point of order under this rule shall be good at any time before any such bill or memorial shall have passed the House.

5. In Committee of the Whole House business on the calendar shall be taken up in regular order, except bills for raising revenue and general appropriation bills, which shall have precedence.

6. When general debate is closed by order of the House, any member shall be allowed five minutes to explain any amendment he may offer, after which the member who shall first obtain the floor shall be allowed to speak five minutes in opposition to it and there shall be no further debate thereon; but the same privilege of debate shall be allowed in favor and against any amendment that may be offered to an amendment; and neither an amendment, nor an amendment to an amendment, shall be withdrawn by the mover thereof, unless by unanimous consent of the committee. The five minute rule being applied shall not preclude further amendment to be decided without debate.

7. A motion to recommend the striking out of the enacting clause of a bill shall have precedence over a motion to amend; and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection. Whenever a bill is reported from a Committee of the Whole with an adverse recommendation and such recommendation is disagreed to by the House, the bill shall stand recommitted to the said committee without further action by the House. But before the report of the committee is acted upon by the House, it is in order to entertain a motion to refer the bill to any committee, with or without instructions, and when the same is again reported to the House, it shall be referred to the Committee of the Whole without debate.

8. Every bill in Committee of the Whole shall be read and considered by sections. The body of a bill shall not be defaced or interlined in any way, but all amendments agreed to by the committee shall be included in the report of the committee, noting the section and line to which such amendment applies.

9. The rules of proceedings in the House shall be observed in Committee of the Whole House, so far as may be applicable, except that a member may speak more than twice on the same subject, and a call for the ayes and nays or for the previous question or motion to lay on the table, can not be made.

RULE 19.

Report of Committee of the Whole.

After business upon which the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole shall be completed, the committee shall rise and report. The report of the Committee of the Whole shall contain a correct account of the action had on each particular measure. When more than one bill is considered in Committee of the Whole and the report of the Committee of the Whole is adopted in one report, it shall be in order on that or the succeeding day upon which the House shall be in Session for any member who voted the prevailing side to move to reconsider the action on any measure separately. When the report of the Committee of the Whole on any bill is rejected, the bill shall remain on general orders until disposed of by the House.

RULE 20.

Action of House Upon Report of Committee of the Whole.

1. When any member desires to speak or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise and respectfully address the Chair in the following form: "Mr. Speaker," and being recognized may address the House from any place on the floor, or from the Clerk's desk, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding personalities.

2. When two or more members arise at the same time the Speaker shall name the member who is first to speak; and no member shall occupy more than one-half hour in debate, on any question in the House or in committee as further provided in this rule.

3. Upon committee reports the member reporting the measure under consideration from a committee may open and close, where general debate has been had thereon; and if it shall extend beyond one day, he shall be entitled to one-half hour to close, notwithstanding he may have used one-half hour in opening.

4. If any member transgresses the rules of the House, in speaking or otherwise, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order, in which case he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted on motion of another member to explain, and the House shall, if appealed to, decide on the case, without debate; if the decision is in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed, but not otherwise; and if the case require, he shall be liable to censure or such other punishment as the House may deem proper.

5. If a member is called to order, for words spoken in debate, the member calling him to order shall indicate the words excepted to and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's desk and read aloud to the House; but he shall not be held to answer, nor be subject to the censure of the House therefor, if further debate or other business has intervened.

6. No member shall speak more than once on the same question without leave of the House, unless he be the mover, proposer or introducer of the matter pending; in which case he shall be permitted to speak in reply, but not until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 23.

Calls of the Roll and of the House.

1. Upon every roll call the names of the members shall be called alphabetically by surname, except when two or more have the same name, in which case the name of the county shall be added; and if there be two such members from the same county, the whole name shall be called, and after the roll has been once called the Clerk shall call in alphabetical order the names of those not voting or answering.

2. Pairs shall be announced by the Clerk after the completion of the roll call, from a written list furnished him, and signed by the members making the statement to him.

3. A majority of the House shall constitute a quorum to do business. In the absence of a quorum, ten members, including the Speaker, if there be one, shall be authorized to compel the attendance of the absent members; or, if a quorum be present, a call of the House shall be ordered upon the demand of 15 members, and pending such call all other business shall be suspended. In all calls of the House, the pages shall announce the call through the corridors of the House; roll call shall be taken by the Clerk, and the absentees noted; the doors shall then be closed, and those for whom no sufficient excuse is made, shall be sent for and arrested wherever they shall be found, by officers to be appointed by the Sergeant-at-Arms for that purpose, and their attendance secured; and the House shall determine upon what conditions they shall be discharged.

4. When, on the call of the House, there are members declining to vote, their names shall be called and entered upon the Journal as present. Members who voluntarily appear, unless the House shall otherwise direct, shall be admitted immediately to the Hall of the House, and they shall report their names to the Clerk to be entered upon the Journal as present. The call may be dispensed with upon progress made, by a majority vote.

RULE 24.

Motions, Their Precedence, Etc.

1. Every motion made to the House and entertained by the Speaker shall be reduced to writing upon demand of any member, and shall be entered on the Journal with the name of the member making it unless it is defeated or withdrawn the same day.

2. When a motion has been made, the Speaker shall state it, or, if it be in writing, cause it to be read aloud by the Clerk before being debated, and it then shall be in possession of the House, but may be withdrawn at any time, before a decision or an amendment.

3. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be entertained but to:

Fix the day to which the House shall adjourn.

To adjourn.

To take a recess.

To lay on the table.

For the previous question.

To postpone to a day certain.

To refer or amend.

To postpone indefinitely.

These several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order; and no motion, being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day at the same stage of the question.

4. A motion to fix the day to which the House shall adjourn, a motion to adjourn and a motion to take a recess, shall always be in order, except when the House is voting or when the last business transacted was a motion to fix the day to which the House should adjourn, a motion to adjourn or a motion to take a recess; but this rule shall not authorize any member to make any such motion when another member has the floor.

The hour to which the House adjourns shall be entered in the Journal.

5. On motion of any member before the question is put, a question shall be divided if it includes proposition so distinct in substance that one thing taken away a substantive proposition shall remain.

6. A motion to strike out and insert is indivisible, but a motion to strike out being lost, shall neither preclude amendment nor a motion to strike out and insert; and no motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment.

7. Whenever a motion to reconsider shall be laid on the table it shall require a two-thirds majority to take from the table.

RULE 25.

Motions Decided Without Debate.

RULE 26.

Members to Vote, Unless Excused.

Every member, present when a question is put, when his name is called, shall vote, unless the House shall, for special cause, excuse him.

RULE 27.

Tie Vote.

In all cases where the House shall be equally divided, the question shall be lost.

RULE 28.

Reconsideration.

1. When a motion has been made and carried or lost, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side, on the same or succeeding day in which the House shall be in session to move for the reconsideration thereof, and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except the consideration of a conference report, a motion to fix the day to which the House shall adjourn, to adjourn or take a recess, and shall not be withdrawn after the said succeeding day without the consent of the House, and thereafter any member may call it up for consideration; provided that such motion, if made during the last six days of the Session, shall be disposed of when made.

2. No bill, petition, memorial or resolution referred to a committee, or reported therefrom for printing and recommitment, shall be brought back into the House on a motion to reconsider.

RULE 29.

Previous Question.

1. A motion for the previous question shall be in order upon the main question, the immediately pending motion or upon an entire group of adhering motions under consideration, and may include a bill to its final passage or rejection, and may be passed by a majority vote if a quorum be present. The effect of the previous question shall be to cut off all debate and to bring the House to a direct vote upon the question or questions upon which it has been ordered, provided that when the previous question is ordered on any proposition upon which there has been no debate, it shall be in order to debate the proposition to be voted upon for thirty minutes, one-half of such time to be given to the proponents and one-half to the opponents of such proposition.

While the previous question is in effect, it shall be in order for the Speaker to entertain or to submit a motion to commit, with or without instructions, to a standing or select committee.

2. A call of the House shall not be in order after the previous question is ordered, unless it shall appear upon an actual count by the Speaker that a quorum is not present.

3. After a motion is made for the previous question, all incidental questions of order arising therefrom and pending such motion, shall be decided, whether on appeal or otherwise, without debate.

RULE 30.

Amendments.

When any main question is under consideration, a motion to amend and a motion to amend that amendment shall be in order, and it shall also be in order to offer a further amendment by way of substitute to which one amendment may be offered, but which shall not be voted on until the original matter is perfected; but neither the substitute nor amendment to the substitute may be withdrawn before amendment or decision is had thereon. Amendments to the title of a bill or resolution or corrections in the history thereof shall be in order immediately preceding the third reading, and shall be decided without debate.

RULE 31.

All bills, memorials or joint resolutions on their first and second readings, unless otherwise provided in these rules, shall be read by their titles; the third reading of all bills shall be in full. This rule shall not be suspended.

Except that upon notice duly given to the House at least one day prior to the third reading of any bill, such third reading may be dispensed with by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

All bills referred to the Printing Committee must be reported within three days, unless further time is granted by the House.
